Hard to believe it is the end of Term One already. I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday. I look forward to seeing everyone back to school safe and sound next term!!

Easter Parade

Don’t forget our Easter Parade begins at 12 noon tomorrow. Parents and Caregivers are invited to stay and have a picnic with their child/ren after the event. Children have been making their hats with buddies and there are some wonderful creations!!

Teacher Interviews

Teachers are happy to speak with parents and caregivers to discuss concerns you have about your child. Teachers are on duty at school from 8:10am in the morning and are available until 3:10pm in the afternoon.

In organising an interview, please contact your child’s teacher to arrange a mutually convenient time. Teachers are usually quite busy in the morning preparing for the day, therefore, after school or during their release from face to face time is preferable. If mornings are the only time you are available, teachers are happy to meet with you as long as they have notice. All teachers are happy to also ring and conduct phone interviews if parents or caregivers are unable to come to the school during work hours due to their own commitments. In some instances, teachers may organise an interview with you outside of school hours, however, this will only be done if there is no other alternative.

All interviews are conducted to address current concerns about your child. Sometimes a teacher will request the attendance of an executive member of staff at an interview if they feel this will be beneficial to the discussion. Our executive staff members are Trudi Gallagher, Yvette Perceval, Alice McGowan, Melissa Gibson Dean and myself, Jacqui Piggott.

I am also available and happy to discuss your concerns. The first question I will ask is “Have you spoken to your child’s teacher?”. This should always be your first step. In most cases, concerns can be addressed and alleviated by your child’s teacher. Open and honest three way communication between children, caregivers and teachers is the key to effectively addressing what is happening with your child.

Money

Please ensure all money is placed in an envelope marked with your child’s name, excursion and amount. Money is receipted and banked before 12 noon on each day. Please do not bring in money after this time as we do not hold cash on the premises due to safety and security reasons.

As camp money is due tomorrow (Thurs 2/4), please have it handed in to the teacher for the morning money bag collection. No money will be accepted after midday.

It was great to see so many students involved and giving their best at our annual Cross Country last Friday. The changed setu of the day ensured yet another successful event. The district carnival will be held on Thursday the 23rd April in Term 2. The first 6 students in each age division have received a district permission note, well done to all students selected to compete.
